

Sofieye Uzor is an experienced Management Professional and Project Management Specialist with demonstrated history of working in both the Public and Private Sector.

Currently working in the Nigerian Upstream Oil and Gas Industry, she is highly skilled in Research, Project Management, Corporate Communication, and Business Process Improvement.

She has a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from the University of Port Harcourt, a Diploma in Entrepreneurship & Business Management from the International School of Management and a Master's Degree in International Management from the University of Liverpool, UK. Professionally, she is an Associate of the Institute of Cost and Management Accountants (Chartered), a member of the Nigerian Institute of Management (Chartered) and an Alumnus of the Lloyds Maritime Academy, London where she acquired a Certificate in Shipping Business. She is also a certified ISO 9001-2015 Auditor.

Sofieye currently works as the Head, Research & Development/Projects at Starzs Investments Company Limited (SICL).