

Temitope Uwadiunor is a seasoned HR professional with over 15 years' experience in Administration and the HR value chain.

In the last 8 years, she has demonstrated passion and commitment for HR functions while working with team members to implement continuous improvement strategies in the Maritime and Oil & Gas Sector. She believes in collaborative leadership style and have a proven record of quietly delivering exceptional results through teamwork. She currently leads a workforce of over 185 employees in a dynamic environment.

As a HR Generalist, she partners with various organization units and stakeholders to implement crew management strategies, learning and development initiatives, corporate communication, community engagement, talent acquisition and retention, and employee engagement.

She holds a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHRi) certification from the HR Certification Institute (HRCI). She's an associate member (ACIPM) of the Chattered Institute of Personnel Management (CIPM) and an associate member (AMNIM) of the Nigerian Institute of Management (NIM). She currently works as the Head Human Resources and Crewing at Starzs Investments Company Limited.